Moultonborough Public Library

With the New Year approaching, we want to thank the Moultonborough community for their continued support this year. The Library Board of Trustees and the Friends of the Library are our biggest supporters and cheerleaders, but every patron that walks in the door, checks out materials, attends our programs, and shares their love for the library with others in the wider community also supports the work that we do. Thank you for a wonderful year!

One way you can show your appreciation is by sharing your stories about the library. We have been collecting compliments in our Compliment Jar this year. Here is one of them, “This team is fabulous! Well-curated recommendations, good display of resources, and so helpful! I had trouble completing something online and received very friendly and helpful assistance. THANK YOU! A great community resource.” A warm thank you to this patron, and to everyone who left us a compliment this year.

Do you have a story about how the library has helped you? Please fill out our short survey to let us know! We are always happy to help, and we love to hear how we did.
