Administration & Finance

Weekly Activities: Julia alerted me that the First Amendment Auditors are starting to make the rounds again so I've circulated a PowerPoint Presentation from the NHMA to the DHs for their staff they believe would benefit from the training, I have also asked Robin to make this part of our onboarding training. We also discussed their opportunity, having worked closely with several of us, to provide input to Robin to share pluses and minuses they may have observed or strengths you believe a new TA needs to possess in order to best be supportive of their unit and successful across the full organization. We have asked the DHs for any additional ideas beyond those we briefly discussed in the staff meeting as to new uses for the scope of the Community Technology Fund so that we can present ideas for reimaging it so that we can have something ready for the SB to consider in the coming weeks. We have asked for a full inventory of surplus such that we might offer it on Online Government Auctions of Government Surplus | Municibid in a trial run to try to avoid the nuisance of tying up space in the DPW garage bay(s), showing times requiring overtime, and the like. Chris T. and Dan S. and I reviewed the pathway project to present on 03/20 and they are updating various quotes to try to put the States Landing bathrooms out to bid by the end of this month. Chris T. and Ken F. and I reviewed the second draft of their response to the CMA Transfer Station report which I hope to have that before you on 03/20 as well as the bid package for the Road program. The legal advertisement for the sale of Tax Deeded Lands has gone off to the Meredith News and Laconia Daily Sun and will go live on 03/20. Mailings will be mailed to abutters and all those who have indicated an interest in the sale. Town Counsel is working on the ownership issue of our Propane tanks.
