Join us for a free family friendly walk down Jack-o-Lantern Lane

Friday, October 15 5:30-7:30pm
the Meadows by Shannon Pond @ Castle in the Clouds

The walking trail around Shannon Pond will be transformed into a family-friendly Halloween experience for all ages to enjoy. Take a leisurely walk through the woods to check out the lit Jack-o-Lanterns & not-so-scary Halloween surprises along the trail. Costumes are encouraged for all ages, however optional! Headlamps/flashlights & proper footwear are recommended.

After the walk, gather by the fire pit for light refreshments. This is a child & family friendly event. Halloween decorations & surprises will not be scary or gory. This is not a "haunted" walk.

MRD is seeking donations of whole or carved pumpkins for the Jack-o-Lantern Lane event!

Whole pumpkins may be dropped off at the Rec Dept. by Wed. Oct. 13 to be carved by our enthusiastic volunteers. Or, get your creative juices flowing & drop off your carved Jack-o-Lantern at the Rec Dept. by Thursday, Oct. 14. All will be put on display at the Jack-o-Lantern Lane event on Friday, October 15, 5:30-7:30pm @ Castle in the Clouds.

Totally Toddlers Tuesdays 9:30-11:00am and socialize, while their trusted adults network and share stories and ideas. MRD will supply various age appropriate toys, you bring your imagination! FREE!

This Drop-In program at the Rec Dept. is a great way for our youngest community members to play, explore Health & Wellness Tip: Fall is a great time to make sure that your home's safety features are in good working order. Take time to test your smoke and carbon monoxide detectors & change the batteries. Make sure that fire extinguishers are easily accessible and are at full pressure. Also, add an HVAC filter to your shopping list. Filters should be changed every few months, especially during seasonal changes, to keep your home clean and your family breathing healthy air.
